OBJECTION TO CHAPTER 9 BANKRUPTCY

Now Comes the creditor in pro se Hassan Aleem a retired builder inspector for city of Detroit and Carl Williams an interest party and both taxpayers in the city of Detroit and the state of Michigan.

The creditor and interest party object to the Bankruptcy for the following:

1) The Public Act 436 that the Bankruptcy is relying on did not receive the constitutional three-four vote as required to challenge the referendum of the people in accordance to Article II section 9 of the Michigan constitution.

2) The Emergency Manager Kevyn Orr violated the Administrative Procedure Act 24.201 by not publishing his orders for sixty 60 days and hearing before it can become effective. The Supreme Court would sua sponte vacate order of state tax commission in equalization case for failure of the commission to proceed in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act Saginaw County v. State Tax Commission (1974) 224 N.W.2d 283, 393 Mich 779, affirmed 244 N.W. 2d 909, 397 Mich. 550

3) We never received notice and hearing, which is a denial of due process of law. In the present context these principles require that a person have timely and adequate notice detailing the reasons for the notice and an effective opportunity to defend. Armstrong v. Manzo, 380 U. S. 545, 552 (1965).

4) The Local emergency financial assistance loan board mean the local emergency financial assistance loan board created under section 2 of the emergency municipal loan act 1980 PA 243, 243 MCL 141.932. The financial loan board responsibility is to loan money and not to appoint the emergency manager.

5) The emergency manager failed to comply with P.A. 436 by not providing a written mandatory financial and operating plan for the local government within 45 days after the emergency manager appointment, thus due process of law violation Article 1 section 2 of Michigan State Constitution and the 5th and 14th Amendment of the Constitutions of the United States

The Financial manager, Kevyn Orr have not shown any plan to reduce the so call financial trouble the local city have before or after the 45 days.

Wherefore and the above reason we pray that this court grant relief declaring the bankruptcy invalid and null and void.

Sincerely submitted,

Hassan Aleem

Detroit, Michigan 48224

and interest party in this bankruptcy action and resident of Detroit, Taxpayers of the State of Michigan, and Citizens of the United States.

We never received notice and hearing, which is a denial of due process of law. In the present context these principles require that a person have timely and adequate notice detailing the reasons for the notice and an effective opportunity to defend. Armstrong v. Manzo, 380 U. S. 545, 552 (1965).

That the law and facts herein this in this affidavit in support of the objection of the bankruptcy. We have read and understand the facts to be true.

That we the affiants, if sworn as a witness, can testify competently to the facts stated in the objection and is true and correct to the best of our knowledge and belief.
